

WELCOME TO READING!

★ Head to Caversham for Tesco Express, Waitrose, Costa Coffee and the Alto Lounge café bar.

★ Head to the Town Centre for McDonald's, clothes, camping supplies and anything else. Find a cheap meal at Wetherspoons 🍷 or buy a warm jumper from Primark 🧥 for the cold nights. The Oracle Shopping Centre has all the main clothing retailers, HMV, and a large Boots. Broad Street has WHSmith, Sainsburys, coffee shops and various useful shops. There is a camping shop (Blacks) 🏕️ on Chain St. The Harris Arcade (off Friar Street) houses a few independent outlets selling records, comics and vintage clothing, amongst other things.

★ Head to Oxford Road for McDonald's (near Reading West Train Station), Tesco (entrance Oxford Rd or Portman Rd for cars), Domino's Pizza, Music Man (2nd hand instruments and records), Workhouse Coffee, takeaways. Free cash machine at Tesco Express.

★ Parking - Please follow colour coded Reading Festival signs.

★ Shuttle Buses

It is an approx. 15min walk to the festival entrance, and normally £1 on the shuttle bus from Reading Station North, ND stop (take the underpass if coming from the south side), running Wed-Mon. Check www.reading-buses.co.uk for updates. Shuttle buses travel between Sainsbury's on Friar Street and the festival (from Rivermead Leisure Complex car park).

★ Useful Numbers

Reading Buses: 0118 959 4000 or download the app.
Traveline: 0871 200 2233 (Calls cost 12p per minute plus network charges)
National Rail: 03457 484950 (24 hrs)
NHS: 111 Thames Valley Police: 101 (non-emergencies)
Samaritans: 116 123 (free) or 0330 094 5717 for Reading Branch

★ Visit us any Sunday at 10:30am, even if you don't normally go to church (wellies welcome), or join us live online: youtube.com/careybaptistchurch

KEY

- Route from station to festival
- Route from festival to town centre
- Taxis (black cabs)
- Cash machine
- Supermarket
- Camping gear
- Primark
- Wetherspoons
- Public toilets
- PureGym

Map produced by Carey Baptist Church © 2022 passionforlifereading.com
 Information correct to our knowledge at time of print. Camp site colours may be subject to change but normally don't change from those shown.

